Axis Say British Annihilated Near Tobruk

British Middle East Headquarters Declare Germans Had Rushed Up Reinforcements to Rezegh and That Big Battle Is Expected There Momentarily With Lengthy Struggle in Offing

SERIOUS NEW LOSSES ADMITTED BY SOVIETS

By the Associated Press
Axis front-line dispatches declared today that British troops south of Rezegh, scene of a three-day battle of massed tanks, had been annihilated and "unhindered," with more than 5,000 prisoners captured, and German military quarters asserted that the Libyan desert campaign could no longer be regarded as a British offensive.

Rezegh is 10 miles south of Tobruk.

British Middle East headquarters said the Germans had rushed up reinforcements to Rezegh and that a big battle was expected there momentarily.

A Cairo bulletin reported that the British Tobruk garrison had smashed deeper into Axis siege lines and declared that strong British tank reinforcements, previously held in reserve, were now moving into the foggy battle zones to bolster other Imperial armored columns which had been reorganizing for a new attack in the Rezegh area.

Other dispatches indicated that the British expected a lengthy struggle.

As the battle raged into its ninth day, even British reports reflected a sharp setback to earlier hopes for a lightning sweep to knock the Axis out of North Africa.

On the Russo-German war front, the Russians admitted serious new German gains on the northern and southern flanks of Moscow's defense arc, but declared that Red army counter-attacks in the Ukraine had thrown the Nazis back six more miles northwest of Rostov-on-Don, in the sector where the Germans had already lost from 37 to 60 miles.

The Vichy (French) radio, quoting "German front reports," said Nazi mechanized forces had slashed through Red army defenses to a point within less than 16 miles of Moscow—the closest approach to the Soviet capital since Adolf Hitler started his huge-scale drive (Turn to Page Two)

VON RIBBENTROP SAYS EASTERN CAMPAIGN OVER

Berlin, Nov. 26.—(P)—Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop told signers of the anti-comintern pact today that Germany already has won her campaign in the east and the war now lines up only as a fight with Britain and her "trans-Atlantic helpers."

The United States, von Ribbentrop told statesmen of the Axis and its satellite nations, remains the last powerful ally of Britain. He added that Hitler long has calculated upon the hostility of a (Turn to Page Eleven)

Republican and Democratic Leaders Miles Apart on Reapportionment and Cutting Taxes at the Present Time

SESSION IS FAVORED

Harrisburg, Nov. 26.—(P)—Republican and Democratic legislators were miles apart today on issues of congressional reapportionment and cutting taxes at this time, but both sides took steps of their own which would bring on a special session.

The common goal was reached this way:
1. Republican senators and representatives in caucus lined up solidly behind a proposal to remove one of Philadelphia's seven congressional districts, as their solution to the problem of reducing the state's representation in congress from 34 to 33. A special session must be called to accomplish any redistricting of the state before next year's elections.
2. Democratic leaders renewed their demand on the governor that he summon the legislature to slash taxes by $100,000,000—the surplus which they argue will pile up at the present rate of income before the end of the 1941-42 biennium—and also to tackle reapportionment.

The Republican attitude on reapportionment will be presented to the ten-man bi-partisan committee next month, December 3. In the meantime, the committee is polling all 50 senators and 203 representatives to determine the most acceptable of five plans.

In Arranging for Program At First Presbyterian at 10:30 O'clock Ministerial Association Urges a Large Attendance

MANY PARTICIPATING

"We Still Give Thanks" is the very apt thought chosen by Rev. John C. Bengtson, pastor of the Bethlehem Congregational church and president of the Warren County Ministerial Association, to form the theme of his community Thanksgiving Day address.

Mr. Bengtson will be the principal speaker for the union service arranged annually by the ministerial group and the only observance of any prominence planned to mark the holiday.

The service will be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning in the First Presbyterian church. Rev. W. G. Woodward, United Brethren minister, will read the Scripture, and Rev. E. Pinkney Wright, pastor of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church, will offer the prayer.

Rabbin Hans Kronheim, of Tiphereth Israel synagogue, will read the Thanksgiving Day proclamation of Governor Arthur H. James. Music for the service will be by the hostess church.

It has been announced that the offering received at this service will be devoted to the work of the Warren Relief Association.

In arranging the community Thanksgiving, the ministerial group is urging a larger attendance of the several congregations than ever before. Those who may be entertaining guests in their homes are invited to bring the visitors and every individual is urged to join in this hour of worship and thankful praise.

Reports from a number of smaller communities nearby indicate that congregations there will hold union services, also, and several (Turn to Page Two)

COMPENSATION FUNDS RELEASED

Harrisburg, Nov. 26.—(P)—The federal social security board today approved the budget for the Pennsylvania division of unemployment compensation for the remainder of this year and withdrew its order holding up $500,000 in federal funds due for October administrative expenses.

Lewis G. Hines, secretary of labor and industry, said the division and the board reached the compromise on two phases which had held up the budget.

In one instance Attorney General Claude T. Reno ruled it was unnecessary, under the law, for the state to re-determine an applicant's authorized benefits every three months and that it could be done annually.

Strike Control Legislation Develops Swiftly in the House and Senate Committees While Groups Appointed by President Undertake to Settle Critical Labor Disputes Involving Mines and Railroads

UNPRECEDENTED STEP TAKEN BY EXECUTIVE

By the Associated Press
A tentative draft of legislation to require cooling off periods before strikes could be carried out in defense industries, including a provision for compulsory arbitration, was studied by the house labor committee today.

Acting chairman Ramspeck (D-Ga.) drew the legislation by direction of the committee after attending an extraordinary conference by Democrats and Republicans of the house with President Roosevelt and federal labor officials.

While congress continued work on proposed legislation, negotiations looking toward a settlement of the paralyzing general strike by 8,500 AFL machinists in the St. Louis area were deadlocked. Three AFL unions—machinists, hoisting engineers and carpenters—refused to recede from their positions which caused the jurisdictional walkout over the right to represent 24 garage mechanics.

The strike was described by an OPM labor expert as "the most important and serious labor tie-up anywhere in the nation."

An arbitration board appointed by the president held its first meeting in New York to try to settle the union shop dispute as an order special presidential board prepared to again take up the threatened railroad strike.

Mr. Roosevelt took an unprecedented step yesterday by instructing his special emergency fact-finding board in the railroad wage dispute to reconvene and review some new facts which he said had come to light since the board reported to him November 5.

A preliminary meeting was scheduled tomorrow at the White House, the new hearings were to begin Friday, and a fresh report to the president has been requested by Monday—six days before the strike deadline set by the five operating brotherhoods.

G. O. P. LEADERS PUT OFF ACTION ON CANDIDATES

Harrisburg, Nov. 26.—(P)—Republican organization leaders have put off for at least another discussion of a ticket for the gubernatorial primary next spring.

"I don't expect anything much before the first of the year," James F. Torrance, chairman of the state committee, said today.

Up to now, talk of candidates for governor to succeed the Republican incumbent, Arthur H. James, has been informal.

James' running mate of the 1938 fight, U. S. Senator James J. Davis, is out in front in the discussions at this point—at least his name is mentioned more frequently than any other—for the gubernatorial nomination.

Davis has neither shut the door nor indicated openly he was seeking the nomination.

Retirement of Major General Edward Martin as commander of the 28th Division—he has reached the army's age limit of 62—prompted speculation on his political plans.

Also mentioned as a potential candidate is Richard P. Brown, Philadelphia, precision-instrument manufacturer. Brown is aligned with William H. Harman, Wilkes-Barre, former Pinchot campaign manager. They have organized what they call the "new guard" opposing the state committee.

Stahlnacker said "in due time" he would announce the "new guard" (Turn to Page Twelve)

Fair Weather to Mark Festive Day in Area

By the Associated Press
Pennsylvanians were given assurance by the weatherman today that Thanksgiving day festivities will not be marred by rain.

What's more, he added, to the delight of those who will be outdoors watching sports contests and other events, temperatures should be about three degrees above normal and average 45 for the day. Skies will be partly cloudy, he said.

Roosevelt Accuses Well Known Magazine With Printing 'Disgusting Lie' About Pedro Aguirre Cerda Who Died Tuesday

APOLOGY IS EXTENDED

Washington, Nov. 26.—(P)—The White House disclosed today that government intelligence services had reported Germany was preparing to raze Belgrade, capital of conquered Yugoslavia, because the Nazis are convinced that the Chetniks, Serbian guerrillas, are using it as a base of operations.

Stephen Early, presidential press secretary, said the report had come in last night. Asked the purpose of disclosing military intelligence, he said he expected to see the report printed. But when he was asked whether President Roosevelt hoped thereby to deter the German plans, Early said he would not say so even if that was the president's desire.

The reports, Early said, according to the declaration of a high German official, assert that "the bombardment to which Belgrade has been subjected will be nothing to compare with what is now in store for the city."

"The Germans have decided to raze Belgrade, which will be surrounded by troops and exposed to bombardment by artillery and from the air. Those giving the government these reports are convinced that the Germans have decided to carry this attack on in the same way as they have done previously in the city of Sabac."

Sabac is about 50 miles west of Belgrade.

(The exact origin of the report that Belgrade would be destroyed was not given Early, but last Tuesday the London Daily Mail quoted General Dusan Simovic, Yugoslav premier, as saying that he had "super information" this was to be done in reprisal.)

"The Yugoslav government in London already has informed Eden (British foreign secretary) of the atrocious outrage which the Nazi government is preparing," Simovic was quoted as saying. "We have instructed our representatives in Washington and Vatican City to (Turn to Page Eleven)

STEINHARDT FINISHES JOURNEY FROM AFRICA

New York, Nov. 26.—(P)—Laurence A. Steinhardt, United States ambassador to Russia, returned to America today on the first west-bound flight of a Pan-American Clipper from Africa.

The ambassador described his trip at length—including the comment that there was heavy snow even in the southern part of Russia—but he declined to discuss the war or to comment on affairs of state.

All told, there were 28 passengers aboard the Clipper. Fifteen of them were airplane pilots who transferred to another plane for Miami, Florida, from where they will ferry bombers to Africa for the British.

The huge plane on which the ambassador arrived, called the Cape Town Clipper, flew a total of 19,261 miles, from Leopoldville, Belgian Congo.

White House Discloses That Government Intelligence Services Had Reported Germany Is Preparing to Destroy Capital of Conquered Yugoslavia in Reprisal for Serbian Guerilla Activities

SIMILAR TO RAID ON NEIGHBORING SABAC

Washington, Nov. 26.—(P)—The White House disclosed today that government intelligence services had reported Germany was preparing to raze Belgrade, capital of conquered Yugoslavia, because the Nazis are convinced that the Chetniks, Serbian guerrillas, are using it as a base of operations.

TRIO IN FAMILY DIES IN CRASH IN ERIE COUNTY

Erie, Nov. 26.—(P)—Three members of a family were killed today in the collision of a light truck and a heavy truck-trailer at an intersection of Route 98 and a secondary road at Franklin Center, 22 miles southeast of Erie.

The victims, all riding in the light truck, were Arthur Wicks, 63, of Cranestown, his daughter, Mrs. Pauline Kemling, 24, and her five-year-old son David. All were hurled from the truck. Mrs. Kemling for a distance of 69 feet.

Wicks operated a milk pick-up route, taking milk from the farms to a dairy.

Coroner Walter G. Stroble said the driver of the truck-trailer, which he identified as Robert Finney of Carnegie, Pa., near Pittsburgh, would be released.

The mishap occurred less than nine hours after another Erie county resident, Carl Schuster, 19, of Erie, was killed and four others injured in an accident last night near West Springfield. State motor patrolmen said Schuster's car swung out of control on a curve and overturned.

The injured, all of Erie, were Jack Powell, 21, Floyd Carl, 22, formerly of Mt. Jewett, Pa., William Noveck, 22, and Thomas C. Goughman, 22, son of Thomas C. Goughman, senior parole officer at Erie county. All were taken to the Brown Memorial Hospital at Conant, O.

The five were enroute to Erie after a trip to Conant.

Procession To Form at 1:30 And Move Promptly at Two; Orders and Line of March

Final plans for the huge parade and celebration to be held here Saturday to officially open the Christmas season were made at an enthusiastic meeting of the Citizens' Committee held last evening. All indications are that the parade will be the largest of its kind ever staged in the borough and thousands of persons are expected to witness the procession.

Success of the parade is assured because of the fine cooperation and support shown by many local business establishments and organizations, as well as the various out-of-town outfits which have accepted invitations to appear here. The Warren Chamber of Commerce is aiding in the staging of the parade by assisting in the task of raising the necessary funds.

Some of the most colorful bands and marching units in the state will be seen in the line of march, including the famed Rocky Grove band, which is one of the largest show bands in this section. Among other well-known organizations to appear will be the prize-winning Ridgway Fire Department marching unit, Veterans of Foreign Wars Band, Kane Fire Department, Warren High school band, Jamestown American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, Frewsburg Fire Department marching unit, Russell and Sheffield High school bands, Lincoln School Patrol Drum Corps of Sheffield, Salvation Army band and the fire departments from Tidoute, Russell, Sugar Grove and Youngsville.

At last night's meeting of the committee arrangements were completed for the treat to be given to each child participating in the parade. This treat will be given at the high school following the parade. Judging of costumes of the children will take place on Water street and there will be two prizes for boys and two for girls.

Any other business firms or organizations wishing to enter floats or participate in the parade which are not listed in the line of march are welcome to do so. These units will be placed in the seventh division forming on Schanz street.

The procession will move promptly at two o'clock and all those participating are asked to be at their designated formation places at 1:30 o'clock. Parade orders were announced today by Kay Davis and are as follows:

IDLE FACTORIES IN STATE LISTED GOVERNOR SAYS

Offers to Furnish President Information on Plants And Sites in Pennsylvania "For Almost Any Defense Purpose"

LETTER MADE PUBLIC

Harrisburg, Nov. 26.—(P)—Governor James offered today to furnish President Roosevelt a list of idle factories and sites in Pennsylvania "for almost any conceivable defense purpose."

The governor made public a letter to the president, dated yesterday, after noting in press dispatches that Mr. Roosevelt discussed plans at a White House conference with Senator Joseph P. Carey and Congressman Patrick J. Boland, of Lackawanna county, for a survey in Lackawanna county to determine whether idle plants are available for defense production.

Governor James informed President Roosevelt that the state department of commerce in the fall of 1940 submitted to the National Council in Pennsylvania a list of 111 idle plants in Pennsylvania, with a total floor area of 25,500,000 square feet.

A supplemental list, the governor wrote, was submitted on November 12, 1940 or 239 idle buildings suitable for defense production, each containing between a 25,000 and 100,000 square feet, a total working space of 12,600,000 square feet.

Governor James wrote the president that state department of commerce records show 19 vacant mills and factories in Lackawanna county with a total floor area of (Turn to Page Eleven)

NEW ASSIGNMENT IE REVEALED FOR BULLITT

Washington, Nov. 26.—(P)—William C. Bullitt, a seasoned diplomat and an outspoken foe of the Axis, had a new assignment today as a special representative of President Roosevelt in the Near East.

The former ambassador to Soviet Russia and France will cover a vast area along the Mediterranean and Red Seas, including the newest theatre of war in the Middle East, and report to the president on developments and needs of the allies.

This marks the second time that Mr. Roosevelt has sent Bullitt on a special traveling assignment. The first was in 1933 when the Philadelphia native visited a number of European capitals gathering information preparatory to a world economic conference which the president later called.

In practice almost a co-prime minister with W. L. Mackenzie King, he often had acted as a Canadian spokesman on foreign affairs.

In September, 1939, he declared Canada could not remain neutral in the war and advocated conscription of Canada manpower for military service, a measure he had opposed in the World War.

DIES IN COLLISION

Somerset, Nov. 26.—(P)—Calvin Turner, 42, of Mann's Choice, was killed today in a collision of his automobile and a moving coal train at a grade crossing near Stoyestown. He was the owner of a trucking business in Bedford county.

State Puts Final Touches on Its Version of Traditional Holiday

By the Associated Press
Pennsylvania put the finishing touches on its version of Thanksgiving today as the weatherman contributed his share with a promise of fine weather for tomorrow's celebration.

For some tomorrow comes as a double-blessed day of turkey and all the trimmings. Some county officials and employees, courts and their attorneys, bankers and others kept President Roosevelt's earlier date last week.

And tomorrow banks and markets again will be closed—joined this time by the schools, business houses, factories which can spare the time off from national defense, and postal workers in many cities. State employees will start a four-day holiday tonight. The capital at Harrisburg will be closed until Monday.

From state officials came statements of caution about holiday driving.

Col. O. M. Wilhelm, deputy motor police commissioner, said fewer football games should aid in keeping down traffic problems. In many communities, the day will mark the "official" opening of the Christmas buying season, which already has been under way in a reflection of booming industry and business.

Late Associated Press Bulletins

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—(P)—John (Hans) Robert, 60-year-old coach of the National League Phillies for the last eight years, today was named manager of the club, succeeding Doc Prothro.

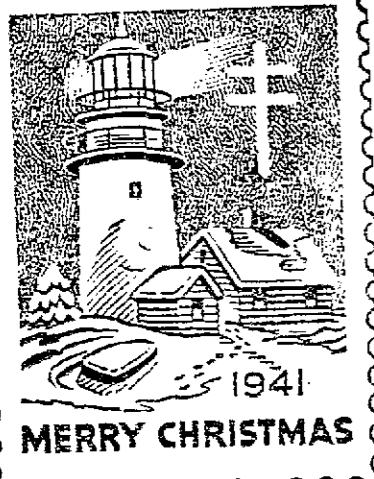

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—(P)—The Communist party is "committed to revolution by force, but opposes premature or sporadic violence," Dr. Joseph B. Matthews, research director of the Dies committee on un-American activities, testified today.

Washington, Nov. 26.—(P)—Secretary of the Navy Knox said today that the torpedoing of the U. S. destroyers Kearny and Reuben James with a total loss of life of 112 men, had caused a decline of 15 per cent in the rate of navy enlistments.

Washington, Nov. 26.—(P)—House Minority Leader Martin of Massachusetts said after a conference of the Republican membership today that a strong effort would be made to send the price-control bill back to the banking committee if a licensing provision were restored.

BORO TEACHERS HEAR REPORTS AND FINE TALK

Much business of importance was taken up at the regular meeting of the Warren Borough Teachers' Association, held at the high school at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, with Miss Glenda Gilmore, president, in charge.

Routine business was followed by a report by R. R. Young, for the legislative committee, and by James Waite, of Beaty school, for the credit union. Mr. Young read a letter which has been sent to Representative Jarrett, Senator Davis and Senator Guffey, expressing the local group's disapproval of portions of the pending social security bill.

Millieen Kopp, social committee chairman, announced a teachers' Christmas dinner at the Y. W. C. A. on December 16, starting at 6:30 o'clock.

R. W. Reynolds, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., spoke in behalf of the lecture forum series and expressed the association's appreciation of the teacher's co-operation in the past.

After the business meeting had been adjourned, Miss Gilmore presented Rev. J. A. Davidson, First Baptist minister, who spoke very interestingly on "Bicycling Through Europe."

against Moscow on October 2.

There was no confirmation of the report elsewhere, however.

S. A. Lozovsky, official Soviet spokesman, said that German casualties in the fighting around Rostov totaled 37,000 and that the two major drives against Moscow had cost the Nazis more dead and wounded than the 200,000 they lost in the World War battle of Verdun.

Soviet front-line dispatches conceded that a powerful thrust by German tanks, planes and infantry had smashed through the Stalingorad sector, 120 miles southeast of Moscow, and advanced to the outskirts of the town of "V"—presumably Verkh, 40 miles northeast of Stalingorad.

Stalingorad itself is 60 miles east of Tula, 100 miles south of Moscow, which has long been the scene of bloody fighting.

Stalled at Tula, the Germans were now apparently striking in a wider flanking maneuver.

The Russians also acknowledged a grave new threat on the north, reporting that the Germans had scored a breakthrough to a main highway somewhere between Moscow and Kilm, 50 miles northwest of the capital.

A London broadcast said the Germans had captured the village of Gora, 40 miles northwest of Moscow, while the German high command previously had claimed the capture of Solnetschnogorsk, only 31 miles northwest of Moscow.

Dispatches to the Soviet newspaper Pravda, however, reported that Red cavalry and tanks had recaptured five villages in the Klin sector, somewhat easing the pressure at that critical point.

A bulletin from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters reported merely that German troops hammering at Moscow's outer defenses made "considerable gains."

In North Africa, the situation was confused, but apparently the British drive led by General Sir Alan Cunningham was slowing.

From Cairo, headquarters of the British Middle East command, came acknowledgement that the Germans, rallying from the first surprise shock of the British counter-offensive, had seized the offensive in some sectors and that trapped Nazis were fighting savagely to break through British lines.

URGE EXTENSION OF SCOUTING TO LARGE NUMBERS

Citing President Roosevelt's statement, "The Nation is confident that the Boy Scouts stand ready to contribute to the National Welfare in these critical hours," Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive, appealed today in a letter to the 550,695 volunteer adult leaders of the Boy Scout movement to "make a determined effort to make Scouting and Cubbing available to more boys as a patriotic service."

According to information received by the Warren County Council, Boy Scouts of America, which has jurisdiction of the Scout and Cub program in Warren county and Ludlow, surveys made all over America consistently show that three out of four boys desire to be Scouts.

F. M. Caughey, who is chairman of the organization and extension committee of the local council, said that Scouting nationally is now reaching approximately one out of every three while locally it is reaching approximately one of every two.

"What a wonderful thing it would be," Dr. West writes, "if because of our emergency situation in the defense program the leadership of any of our 41,695 Boy Scout troops and 7,646 Cub packs not now recruited to full strength could have at least one recruit for each patrol and each den, preferably at the invitation of the boys in the patrol or den."

The Warren County Council, Mr. Caughey said, now has an active enrollment of 582 Boy Scouts in 30 troops and 40 Cubs in 3 Cub packs and 226 adults serving as volunteer leaders. In spite of the fact that defense conditions have made great inroads in the local volunteer personnel, causing large leadership losses, the local council believes it must continue extending its program. Two new troops and four new Cub packs are now being organized in Warren, Sheffield and Irvine. In addition each Boy Scout troop in the local council has set definite membership objectives to be achieved before December 31.

Visitors Learn of Important Work Being Done by Red Cross Chapter

All day and all evening on Monday groups of visitors were conducted on inspection tours at Red Cross headquarters by workers and the fine new accommodations proved a revelation to those who for the first time visited the spacious home at 404 Market street, given by Miner Cray to the Warren County Chapter, American Red Cross.

Matching the splendid new quarters and equipment is the impressive array of work, completed and in process, which was on display for the visitors. Only a personal visit—which all citizens are invited to make—can give a conception of the varied activity, the efficient organization and the vast achievement through united effort.

In the store-rooms one is astonished at the great stock of materials of all sorts—for dressings, for knitted articles and great bolts of fabrics for clothing and bathrobes. In the shipping or packing room, as the completed articles are prepared for delivery, the visitor realizes that even the quantities of materials in the store-rooms is none too great for the rapid workers. Then a glance at the various rooms full of women, all industriously working with modern equipment, supplies the secret to the steady flow of materials from start to completion.

Everyone is delighted with the spacious rooms, the convenient arrangement of space and the fact that the building is well lighted and warm, with abundant provision in every way for a large working force.

Much like a well-ordered factory the work of cutting, sewing, knitting and inspecting is in constant progress as the visitor is conducted from room to room.

The display of completed layettes and of garments for children and adults gives one an intimation of the amount which is accomplished within a year, and reminds one that the quota for all articles which must be completed by January 1st is nearly three times that of last year.

Downstairs, in addition to the rooms that accommodate workers and materials, is the office at which applications for training as nurses' aides are being received. Upstairs, with its own office and organization, is the space for surgical dressings, carried on constantly during four days and two evenings of the week. Usually, for the sake of sanitary precautions these rooms are not open to visitors in street clothing, but on the one designated visiting day the rooms were opened for inspection.

A group of New Process Company employees work here regularly on Monday evenings and on Tuesdays members of the Catholic Daughters and Business and Professional Women's Club assist.

There is also on the second floor a room for sewing. There is a special invitation for groups desiring to come in a body, with their own supervisors. Convenient time in the evening may be arranged by communicating with headquarters.

Women's groups from Starbrick, the Legion Auxiliary, Catholic Daughters and Jewish Women's Auxiliary already are availing themselves of the group arrangement.

In issuing an invitation for new participants in this national work for humanity, Red Cross officials emphasized that those who may not consider themselves particularly skilled may nevertheless render service and quickly develop surprising ability under expert guidance at headquarters.

FINE REPORT OF COLLECTION IS HEARD BY LIONS

Members of the Lions Club, meeting Tuesday at the Y. W. C. A. activities building, heard a most encouraging report from George Frantz, chairman, on the club's collection last Saturday for the Warren Relief Association. It was said to be the best of ten such gatherings staged by the club.

H. M. Mohr, chairman, reported on the start of the annual tuberculosis seal sale campaign, which is another community activity promoted by the service club.

R. J. Weigel, vice president, was in charge of the meeting in the absence of President Milway and introduced one new member, George B. Papen, manager of the Universal Concrete Pipe Company.

Next week's meeting, it is stated, will be devoted to further plans for attending the stag party being given by the Oil City Lions on Wednesday, December 3.

College Who's Who Lists Warren Girl

Friends in Warren will be pleased with the announcement that Rachel Emery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice R. Emery, 25 Franklin street, will be listed in the 1941-42 issue of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, to be released in January or February.

Miss Emery, graduated from Warren High School in 1938 and tied with two others for highest honors, will receive her bachelor of arts from Eastern Nazarene College in Wollaston, Mass., next June.

She is a member of Sigma Delta Gamma Society, was editor of the freshman annual, president of the Honor Society and on the college yearbook staff for three years.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges is published through the cooperation of 600 such institutions of learning and is the only means of national recognition for graduates which is devoid of politics, fees and dues. The purpose of it is to serve as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college careers, as a means of compensation to students for what they have already done, as a recommendation to the business world and as a standard of measurement for students.

Announcement is again made that the Chandlers Valley women will sponsor a Christmas meeting in the Valley Grange hall on December 9, the all-day sessions to be open to the public and a tureen luncheon to be served at noon. Christmas gifts, decorations, menus and entertainment will be features and each woman attending should contribute some idea on these subjects.

START DEFENSE TRAINING CLASS AT SHEFFIELD

Sheffield, Nov. 26—A national defense training school project here similar to one conducted in the community last year will be instituted next Monday evening in the Lincoln school annex building, where a class in welding will hold its first session. H. C. Shirley, T. V. Ry. shop foreman, will be the instructor.

L. O. Eisenhauer, local high school principal who is in charge of the project, said yesterday that the class now consists of 15 students. Inasmuch as a membership of 20 is permitted, there is room for a few more in this particular class, Mr. Eisenhauer pointed out. The school principal invites all who are eligible to receive the training but who have not as yet applied for membership in the class, to attend the initial meeting Monday evening and enroll at that time. Any male who is 17 years of age or over and who is out of school is eligible, Mr. Eisenhauer said.

It is hoped that the number of new applicants will be not only sufficient to fill to maximum membership the welding class but sufficient also to warrant instituting a training course in electricity. Mr. Eisenhauer said that a few students already have enrolled for the proposed electric course and that a class in that subject will be organized just as soon as the required minimum of 10 applications has been received.

Both electric and acetylene welding will be taught in the course which will get under way Monday night. The enrollees will receive 15 hours training and instruction each week for at least 8 weeks and possibly a longer period of time.

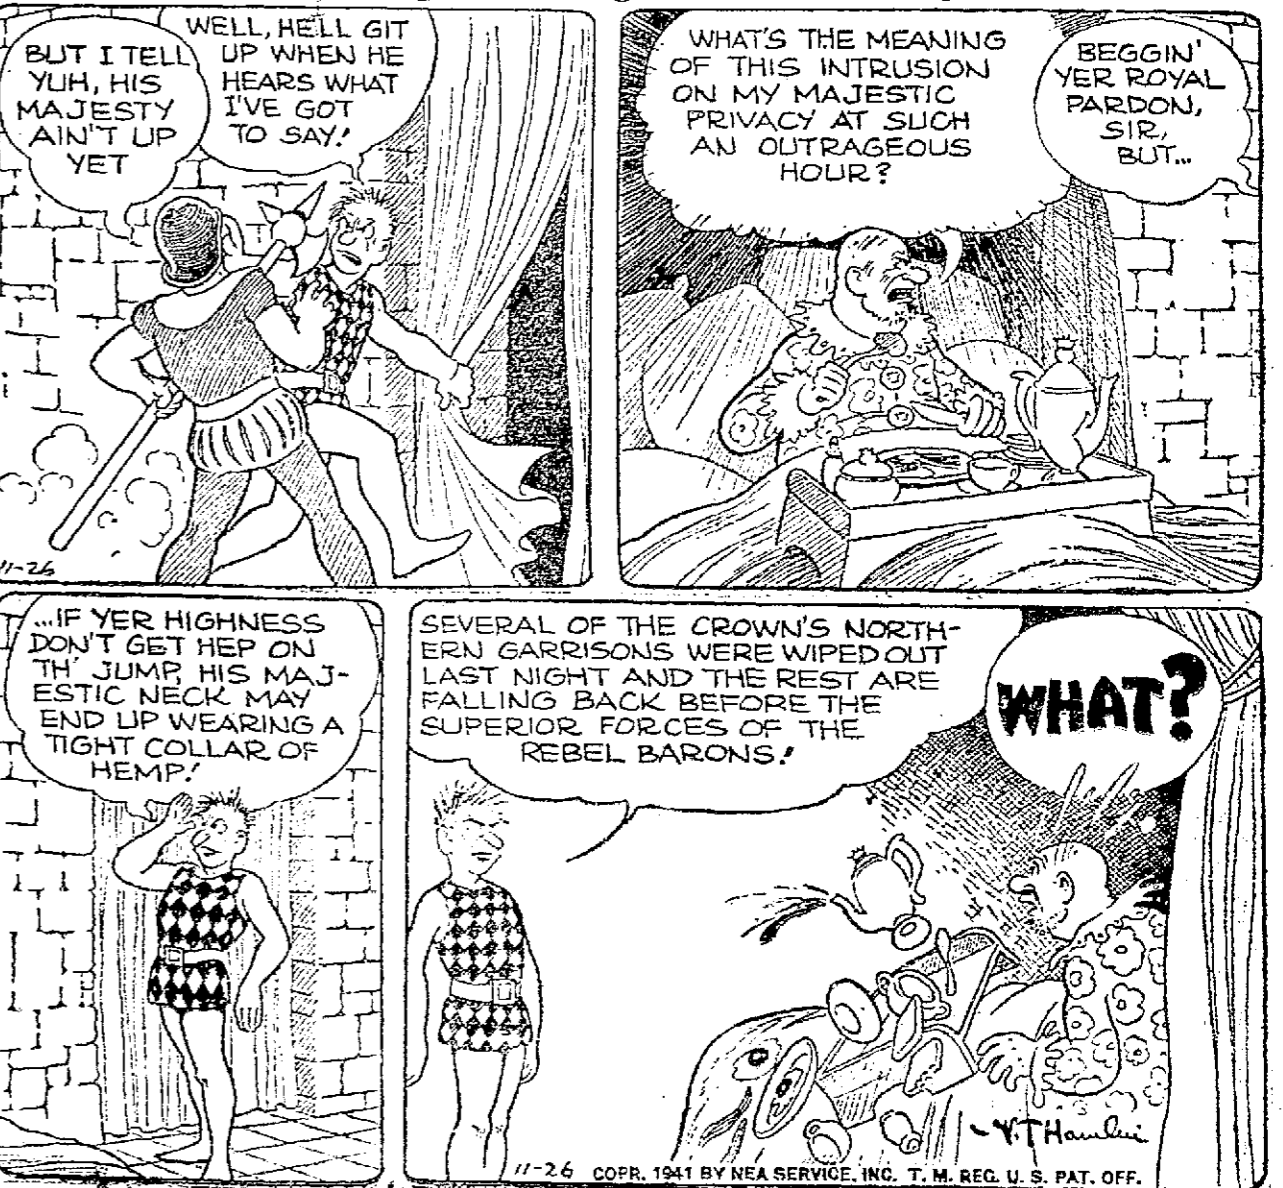

Establishment of the defense training school here, scheduled several weeks ago, was delayed by an enforced revision of the original plans, which plans included provision to supply instruction to classes from CCC Camp ANF-13. The CCC Camp later was ordered abandoned and as a result the entire training project had to be altered.

Application blanks for enrollment in the training school are available from either Mr. Eisenhauer or L. B. Jones, secretary of the school board. Anyone desiring to obtain one of the blanks between now and Monday is advised to see Mr. Jones, for Mr. Eisenhauer will be out of town during the Thanksgiving holiday period.

THANKSGIVING—1941!

While people in 25 other states, many of them neighbors to Pennsylvania, held their Thanksgiving Day celebrations last week, the Keystone state stuck to the original date and will enjoy the holiday tomorrow, and according to all reports the event will be widely observed in this community.

The most characteristic feature of Thanksgiving day is that it is a celebration and renewal of home joys. Perhaps more than any of the holidays, it has been the time of family reunions, although this year in many homes this feature will be omitted because of conflicting dates which will prohibit relatives coming from those states which observed the day a week ago.

The old timers used to invite large parties of relatives to gatherings at that time, and it is believed that this custom will be revived more than ever next year when the whole country from coast to coast will celebrate the same date—the last Thursday in November.

The old-fashioned Thanksgiving gave the folks pleasure to return to homes where they lived in early youth, to see the trees which they had climbed for birds' nests or the brook where they had fished.

The modern world is shuffled all over the land. The sons and daughters are scattered around everywhere and the majority can't get back to the old homes. As a matter of fact the old family hearthstone is merely a memory for many.

Entertaining company is more difficult under modern standards, and the big family reunions of the past are mostly gone by.

An inspiring sermon on the subject of Thanksgiving is contained in the annual proclamation issued by Governor Arthur H. James, November 17th, which is reprinted below:

"In this year of war, when three-fourths of the world is engaged in a struggle of death and destruction, spreading over the homes of a billion men and women, we who are Pennsylvanians have particular reason to express our gratitude

"By the grace of God and through the sacrifices of our ancestors, we have been privileged to enjoy a freedom from oppression and tyranny to maintain our liberty of speech and conscience, and to experience that great happiness of security in our homes and of the right of each man to earn his daily bread.

"Moreover, upon this continent, for three-quarters of a century, peace and unity have been preserved between us and our neighbors, and among all the peoples of these United States.

"For that strength and wisdom in our institutions which have procured these blessings for us to enjoy, and to transmit to our children, we are humbly and devoutly thankful.

"For diligence to defend these institutions and for humanity to extend their benefits, it is necessary that we in this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania seek divine help and guidance, as we express our gratitude.

"Now, therefore, I, Arthur H. James, governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 27, 1941, as a day of prayer and thanksgiving for this Commonwealth, to be observed and enjoyed by all of our people in their homes and churches, acknowledging their gratefulness to Almighty God.

"I urge that the flag, symbol of the faith of our fathers, be flown from all our homes and buildings and that with the humility and fervency of those who, so long ago, labored to build this structure of our freedom, we rededicate our lives to God, to liberty, and to humanity."

A timely warning about safe driving over the holiday is issued by Secretary of Highways I. Lamont Hughes, which every motorist planning to take a trip should keep in mind every moment on the road.

After tomorrow the next big event for the community will be Christmas parade to be staged in Warren Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, and according to all reports it's going to be an event well worth witnessing.

Include in your holiday program attendance either at the Community service at 10:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, or one of the other churches where programs will be held.

The first truck load of Christmas trees was observed being hauled over Pennsylvania avenue this week. It won't be long now.

And the weather outlook is fair and cooler, but plenty hot for the gobsblers.

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword.—Isaiah 1:20-21.

O Rock of Israel, Rock struck and left for me, let those two streams of blood and water which once gushed out of thy side, bring down with them salvation and holiness into my soul. Brevint.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Nobody asked me, but I still like college football better than pro. . . . Bill Stern is my sports announcer. . . . Nobody in pugilism gives me the kick Dempsey did. . . . There's not a funnier comedian than Danny Kaye. . . . Hardest band leader in New York to interview is Benny Goodman. . . . I dunno why, but every time I hear Helen Hayes' voice my heart skips a beat. . . . I'm the guy who never sailed for Lana Turner. . . . But I'd stand in the rain to hear Blue Barron play "Sometimes I'm Happy." . . . I just read in the magazine Swank that I am from the mid-west. . . . If that's true, somebody's been giving me an awful run-around. . . . I always thought I was from Lake Charles, Louisiana.

THE gibberish, impromptu talker on Broadway is Hy Gardner. . . . Some gal, that Edna Fieber. . . . The movies paid her $175,000 for "Saragossa Trunk" before I was even published. . . . I can't miss selling a quart of a million copies. . . . Besides, she's co-author of a play on Broadway. . . . "The Land Is Bright." . . . Can't understand why Sammy Kaye's Sunday Serenade program remains unspooned. . . . It's a home. . . . Odd about Slim Sumner. . . . He's probably the only actor on record who doesn't want to come to New York. Has no desire to see the big town. . . . Murals do not intrigue me. . . . The people in them have too many muscles. . . . I've never seen Morrie Woolsey with anyone but himself. The actor who made such a success of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" kicks around at all hours. . . . But he's a love life. . . . I've seen him at 4 p.m. and 4 a.m., but always alone.

THE strangest literary sensation of the year is Gypsy Rose Lee, burlesque strip dancer, who wrote a best-seller, "My Confessions." . . . The G-string Murders. . . . I can see every fan-dancer in town running for a typewriter. . . . If the fan-dancer at Leon & Eddie's writes one, it will be translated. . . . She's Chinese. . . . It saddens me to pull a boner like that. . . . Sometime ago I wrote that p. 10. . . . Wyley Mason had shot a 1600-pound bull moose with a "silver tipped" bullet. . . . Actually, he said he shot it with a "silvertip" bullet. . . . That makes all the difference in the world. . . . Moose hunters all around the country have been writing to me. . . . Made it better stick to stougers.

When you're looking for striking similarities, don't overlook Lou Costello, a dead singer for Mayor LaGuardia. . . . Or Francis Scott Key, who wrote it, has done more for the Star Spangled Banner than Lucy Monroe. . . . I love to hear that song sung on the air, but the commercials that follow it sometimes seem silly. . . . For instance, . . . "and the hom-m-m-m-e . . . of the brav-y-y-y-e . . . Mothers! Buy Red Dog Oatmeal. It Makes the Kiddies Well Yum-Yum." . . . I've often wondered why torch singers use such dark, thick lipstick. . . . In a recent contest, 52 of 85 contestants sang the torch lament "My Jim." . . . I was one of the judges of that contest. . . . After 52 times, you get a little weary of "Jim."

STORIES IN STAMPS

Swiss Series Honors Heroes of Literature

SWITZERLAND'S "Pro Juventute" stamps, semi-postals first issued in 1913, pay homage each year to persons outstanding in the nation's literature or history.

The stamp above, issued in 1940 honors Gottfried Keller (1819-1890), a celebrated Swiss novelist and poet and who has been called one of the best modern short story writers.

Keller was born in Zurich of parents who, like the parents of so many famous men, were poor. He read widely while a youth and chose painting for his profession.

Illness, poverty and little success in his chosen field forced his emigration from Zurich to Munich. During the next four years he studied, wrote lyrics, and turned to literature.

From 1850 to 1855 Keller spent lean years in Berlin, but oddly enough, they marked a turning point in his career. He wrote a few columns, biographical novel, and the first volume of his collection of short stories.

His second, successful period extended from 1876, when he returned to his office as secretary of the German in Zurich, to his death in 1890.

of Defense Savings Stamps to their Christmas customers.

Q. Why are people also urged to buy Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps?

A. Because the country faces the greatest danger in its history. The way to meet that danger is to safeguard our assets and resources to the limit. Also, individuals need to save now as never before, the need the problems likely to arise when defense spending ends.

Note—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan associations; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps are now on sale at retail stores.

LET US BE THANKFUL

We thank Thee, O Father, for all that is bright—
The gleam of the day and the stars of the night.
The flowers of our youth and the fruits of our prime,
And the blessings that march down the pathway of time.

We thank Thee, O Father, for all that is dear—
The sob of the tempest, the flow of the tear;

For never in blindness, and never in vain,
Thy mercy permitted a sorrow or pain.

We thank Thee, O Father of all, for the power
Of aiding each one in life's darkest hour;
The generous heart and the bountiful hand;
And all the soul-help that sad souls understand.

We thank Thee, O Father, for days yet to be;
For hopes that our future will call us to Thee.
Let all our eternity form, through Thy love,
One Thanksgiving Day in the mansions above.

SACRED BULLS

The sacred bulls of India are males of the zebu, or Indian ox, a beast of burden found since ancient times only in Africa, India and Madagascar.

LIFE OF A DOLLAR

The life of dollar bills was cut in half by the advent of the automobile. Increased circulation and constant handling by greasy hands account for this.

SOUTHERN EXPOSURES

You could build a house with all windows having southern exposures at the North Pole, since all directions from there are south.

ACCLAIM STATE ASSESSOR PLAN

Harrisburg, Nov. 25.—Several magazines of national circulation have published articles on Pennsylvania's borough, city and township assessors' schools. Dr. Francis B. Haas, superintendent of Public Instruction, announced today.

In a recent issue of Country Gentleman an editorial discussed the assessors' schools being conducted for eight-week periods under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction, Public Service Institute. The November issue of Better Homes and Gardens contains an article titled "Tax Relief for Home Owners" by a writer of national note. The Farm Journal, with a national circulation, is preparing an article on the same subject.

Records of the Public Service Institute show that 95% of the assessors in the various counties where classes have been and are being taught attended the courses. The Handbook for Pennsylvania Assessors, published last February, is used as the textbook for the courses. There are now in force classes in Blair, Susquehanna, Montgomery, Columbia, Lakawanna, Lehigh, Bucks, Crawford, Warren and Erie Counties. In several of these counties two or more courses are being conducted for the assessors.

Mr. Leppard, Calgary school principal who only recently retired after completing a 45-year term of service in the teaching profession, spoke on the topic "The Principles of Life and the Methods to Obtainment." He attended the meeting as guest of and was introduced by his brother-in-law, O. M. Borden, local mortician, at whose home he is visiting.

Miss Betty McKown, local high school student, was the only other guest at the luncheon affair. Glen Belknap, club president, was in charge of the session.

WILL OBSERVE HOLIDAY

The township schools, the post-office, and most of the community's mercantile and industrial establishments will be closed Thursday in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. The holiday for the schools will extend through Sunday, with classes scheduled to be resumed Monday morning.

The lobby will be open and window service will be available at the postoffice from 8:30 to 10 a. m., the officials have announced. Thanksgiving was to have been observed last Thursday by the post-office but last minute word from the postal department permitted deferment of the observance until this Thursday.

The Navy Recruiting Service has launched an extensive recruiting program for enlistment of trained or untrained men in the naval reserve, such as machinists, metal-smiths, carpenters, storekeepers, electricians, etc. Trained men who can pass the required physical and mental examinations in addition to the qualifications for the trade in question will be enlisted in the naval reserve in the higher pay grades.

Untrained men who are enlisted and desire to take up a trade will be sent to the trade school of their choice. There are over fifty different trade schools maintained by the Navy Department for the purpose of training newly enlisted recruits in the many different trades required on board the ships of the fleet.

Age requirements of enlistment in the naval reserve are from 17 to 50 and in the regular navy from 17 to 31.

It is estimated the average American spends $6 a year on medicine.

NOTED SPEAKER WILL BE HEARD ON "Y" COURSE

On Monday, December 1, at the Y. M. C. A. lecture forum course in the Woman's Club auditorium, the speaker will be Captain John D. Craig.

"That 'D' in my name," states Captain Craig, "was put in as a financial fencing. It means no more than that there were eight other John Craigs who banked in the same house of business as I in my California home town. It could stand for Doc for that matter."

Captain Craig's book publishers were more astute in putting a name to the title of the initial D of his name. "Danger" was the first word in the title of this adventure's first book. To make a business of danger is a factual result of adventures which come as benefits to humanity. Captain Craig, a few years ago, half in earnest and half jokingly, set out to find buried treasures on the ocean bed. The outcome of experimental diving, was a serious profession. Treasure has been found, scientific research of the ocean bottom has been made and photographic record filed. To secure the necessary paraphernalia for his business, Captain Craig was forced to turn inventor. The most advanced type of diving dress is the Craig-Nohl, helium-oxygen diving gear.

For the past six months Captain Craig has led his expeditionary force in a land and seaway patrol of the Philippine Islands. Bringing to bear upon his subject, the keenness of observation developed in avoiding and averting disaster during hazardous undertakings, Captain Craig presents "The Philippines Today" as a lecture illustrated with colored movies, in which the political, industrial, economic, agricultural, educational, religious and social life of the islands has been condensed into informative phrases and quick, witty narrative which is given tang of humor.

BATTLE OF WITS
KEEPS TOURNAMENT
GAMES EXCITING

BY WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

America's Card Authority
A national tournament in all ways a battle of wits, with each expert trying to put something over on his equally expert opponents. Often these coups are successful, especially if they are managed as casually as this one. Declarer let the defense think he was trapped, gave away a trick, and then laid down seven sure tricks in diamonds and hearts.

North won the third round of spades, then led a heart and ducked the trick to West, a club came back, but declarer came right up with the ace and cashed seven red tricks in a hurry. I say that declarer ducked the heart trick to West because that is just the way the play happens time and again, casually as though the defense were helpless. But an alert East player can kill the heart suit. He should go up with the jack on the first heart lead. If he is allowed to hold the

Musical Notes

It will be of interest to local friends that Horace Brynolfson, former pupil at the Warren Conservatory of Music, has been chosen for the Glee Club at Reg. City Music Hall.

According to word just received here from New York, Mr. Brynolfson was an operatic concert soloist in an operatic concert given at the Hotel Astor, appearing as Manon, La Bohème, Rigoletto, La Traviata and Martha.

Dr. William O'Toole, prominent New York musician, has written a new, complete method for piano in four books, with teachers' guides and has dedicated it to the "Warren men who have helped me most in music." Dr. LeRoy E. Campbell, of Warren; Dr. Frederick Schindler, of Warren; Dr. Robert Smith, of Warren; Dr. O'Toole made many friends in Warren while here to judge the national piano-playing tournaments at the Warren Conservatory of Music.

A number of Warren musicians are making plans to go to Erie on December 1, when the Soroptimist Club presents Jorge Bolet, handsome young Cuban pianist, in a recital at Strong Vincent auditorium. Bolet has appeared as soloist on several occasions with the Philadelphia Symphony, has been heard under the baton of Fritz Reiner and during the summer played the Schumann Concerto at Robert H. Schindler's home. His two performances at Town Hall and Carnegie Hall are said to have left the critics among his foremost admirers.

Just off the press is a book "Favorite Recipes of Famous Musicians" and its author is well known in Warren. She is Charlotte Morris, wife of Burton R. Morris, and both have visited here on several occasions in the interests of the local concert series.

Five Lettermen Bolster Youngsville Cagers This Season

Dave Clark is Elected to Captain Eagles; Johnson, Meleen, Seasoned Veterans

Five lettermen, three with a good share of varsity experience, and one owning two letters in his third and last season on the Red and White cagers, led fourteen varsity squad members this season in their quest for the Upper Allegheny League championship, competition in the top starting for the Eagles on Friday, January 16.

The Stockdale charges, playing their first year under the new Youngsville football and basketball coach, face a tough 21-game road through the winter, with four games which will be filled if possible to give the schoolboys an even 25 games for their record.

Elected captain for the year, Dave Clark, invaluable football player also, will lead the Eagles in the court, having had two years of varsity experience and being capable floor man from all angles. Ken Johnson and Bill Meleen, worthy members of last year's outfit, are back again, and David Langard and Jack Schumacher, who made letters last winter though they weren't seen in varsity games as much as the other three boys, are expected to round out a starting lineup for Coach Harry Stockdale that will make the Eagles leading contenders for league honors.

Bill Howe, Joe Tittio and Warren McAllister are the only other candidates for this year's team. They have had previous court experience at Youngsville, the remaining six boys to be placed on the first squad are comparatively green, but they're willing to learn and may develop into a strong reserve unit for the Red and White.

Youngsville opens its home season against Tionesta on December 2, after playing their second game of the campaign away from

Lou Boudreau Succeeds Peckinpaugh as Cleveland Pilot

The best coaches are the most pessimistic, but, of course, there are lots of gloomy coaches who aren't any too good. However, one of the more reticent and seasoned pessimists of the better coaching circle is Warren's own H. G. "Heinie" Kolpien when it comes to talking over pre-season hopes or possibilities concerning the Warren High cagers. In nine years in the Northern circuit of District Nine the Dragons have topped four titles and have ended in playoff positions three other times. That should prove to any skeptical readers that Kolpien builds good basketball teams, and that there usually is little need for his outlook to be too gloomy. Of course, this may not be classed as pessimism but perhaps wisdom in holding back and sitting tight until you know or find out just where you stand about the area's other league entrants. Truly, this winter the veteran local mentor will have a chance to point at many other schools with more extensive material and more experienced men, but we still look for a good season from the Blue and White.

Taking a peep at some of their warm-up contests, however, which should prepare them adequately for the loop grind which always is tough, the Dragons will start off with Oil City, four lettermen, then move on to Corry, with twelve lettermen back, Titusville and Jamestown, both veteran combinations and plenty tough, and finally wind up with Falconer and the Collegians, who will host the services of Brown, Check, Conroy, Lundahl, Rapin, Templeton and many other stars of yesterday who will give a none too experienced Dragon squad about all the fight they'll need. After this dish the loop should be dessert for the Kolpienmen if they can break even with the above teams. Oil City may not have produced anything in the way of a football team, but that same Ward that was noted for being an aggressive end on the Oiler grid squad, is the towering man that paces their court offering and will be mainly responsible for their success or failure this winter. Corry's Beavers undoubtedly should give the locals a stiff fight, and that game will be no pushover. In fact, each of these first six teams which Warren will play in scheduled games, but more or less as warm-ups prior to the league, are capable of being first class sparring partners that will help the Northern League's leading contenders for the crown now worn by Bradford to get set to relieve the Owls of the burden again.

Pittsburgh Steelers Close Books in Red

Pittsburgh, Nov. 26—(P)—Once again, as he has done in all but one of the past eight years, co-owner Art Rooney of the Pittsburgh Steelers pro football club, brought out the red ink today to close his books for the season, and said—as he always does: "Well, maybe we'll do a little better next year."

Maybe he had in mind the new head coach, Big Wal Kiesling, under whom the Steelers won their only victory in the National Professional Football League and gained their only tie against eight losses for the league's poorest record.

Kiesling was head coach in 1940, but severed as assistant under the successive regime of co-owner Bert Bell and Bud Donelli until the club dropped seven straight.

"It wasn't that we didn't feel 'kies' was capable," Rooney explained. "We were thinking of finances and wanted to have a coach more people knew."

The team lost $8,000 this year.

USLTA SUSPENDS FRANKIE KOVACS FOR VIOLATIONS

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN
New York, Nov. 26—(P)—The United States today was without an indoor tennis champion, following Frankie Kovacs' suspension for alleged violation of the amateur code, but don't be surprised if it loses its outdoor titleholder, Bobby Riggs, as well before you have completed your Christmas shopping.

Although everyone professed ignorance of it, rumors persisted that both Kovacs and Riggs had signed for a cross-country road-swinging tour under management of Alexis Thompson, young millionaire owner of Philadelphia's professional football team.

Kovacs was suspended by the rules committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association last night without comment except that the group printed in full its rule on expense accounts above its 60-word statement concerning the suspension.

The former Oakland, Calif., youth and the USLTA have been at odds almost from the time he broke into big-time tennis in 1938. That year he was dropped from the Davis Cup squad for failure to remain in a Cincinnati tourney after winning his first match. Kovacs insisted an ankle injury kept him from playing although he performed. Neither did the tennis fathers appreciate his clowning and comments during other court appearances.

PLEASANTVILLE 24-Year-Old Star Will Be TROUNCED 49-16 BY YOUNGVILLE Promoted to Vice-President

BY RAY BLOSSER
Cleveland, Nov. 26—(P)—The Cleveland Indians plucked Lou Boudreau from their own ranks to become one of the youngest managers in major league history, and the flashy shortstop promptly pledged today that the Tribe would change into a fighting ball club.

The Indians, sometimes hitingly referred to as a good team on paper because they folded so easily, "will eat, sleep and drink baseball," declared their 24-year-old new playing pilot. "My objective is a hustling ball club. There will be no lying down."

Boudreau takes over the job vacated by promotion of Roger Peckinpaugh—who managed the New York Yankees the last two weeks of the 1941 season while only 23 years old—to the top front office desk of your president.

Boudreau's rivals Joe Cronin and Stanley (Bucky) Harris, were 26 and 27, respectively, when they first became American League managers. It was scarcely more than two seasons ago that Lou joined the Indians after brief minor league seasoning with the Cedar Rapids, Ia., and the Buffalo, N. Y. clubs.

"I realize I'm young, but I feel I can do the job, given the confidence of the players and the fans," he commented. "I feel we'll make our goal—first division. It will be harder if the army takes Bob Feller, but we're through making the same mistakes in September that we made in April."

Boudreau plans "something like chalk talks" to train the players—lookies upparticularily—in throwing to the correct bases. The club house will be made more comfortable so the players will feel like spending more time in it. The Tribe's dugout at League Park also will be moved closer to the playing field—partly with the idea of affording some privacy from the customers of the nearby field boxes. Some other matters are calling, too, for Lou's immediate attention.

He wants a good coach who can assist him from the dug-out while he's busy playing, and is studying whether to retain either of the club's present tutors, Earl Whitehill and George Susce.

Another detail is the business to be done at the minor leagues' meeting in Jacksonville, Fla., next week, while still another is whether he can retain his present winter job as an assistant basketball coach at the University of Illinois, where he was graduated in 1939.

President Alva Bradley made the appointment after worrying for weeks over Boudreau's youth. "I definitely had in mind somebody else," Bradley disclosed, "but the more I thought of it the more I thought here's a fellow who knows our situation and all the players. So I called him on the telephone Monday evening, and we talked it over yesterday, and agreed on a two-year contract."

Boudreau is married and has a daughter nearly three years old. An inveterate time-winner-awayer on pinball machines, he had only this regret on his selection: "I'm afraid my pinball career is over. I've more to think about now than winning free games."

TEXAS AGGIES, NAVY, OREGON ARE CHOICES OF HERB BARKER

BY HERB BARKER
New York, Nov. 26—(P)—Closing the books on the 1941 football season:

Thursday, Nov. 27
Texas A. and M.-Texas: The Aggies have achieved their first victory—but a bowl assignment will be back and that should be pretty tight. A. and M. will be high for this game even if its additional rivalry with Texas are not sufficient. Everyone's trying to explain what happened to Texas. In the meantime, A. M.

Tulsa-Arkansas: This should be one of the Missouri Valley champions look pretty tough. Tulsa.

Wichita-Oklahoma A. & M.: Probably close. Oklahoma A. and man-power nad this ballot goes to Navy.

Fordham-New York University: Fordham, decisively.

Tennessee-Vanderbilt: Not easy, for Tennessee has been coming along steadily in recent weeks. Still, this nod goes to Vanderbilt.

Tulane-Louisiana State: This is in-and-out Tulane's week to be "out," but we'll run the risk. Tulane.

Mississippi - Mississippi State: Conference title hinges on this one. On backfield strength, Mississippi.

Georgia Tech-Georgia: Frank Sinkwich should be enough to put this one in the win column for Georgia.

Stanford-California: This could spell trouble for Stanford, but the Indians still have a chance for the Rose Bowl and rate the nod.

Oregon-Oregon State: Oregon State needs this one to be virtually certain of the Rose Bowl assignment. Strictly out of the hat, Oregon.

Boston College-Holy Cross: Depsits the traditional angle, the only possible choice is Boston College.

It tells you more than the time..

Your watch is a symbol of American achievement in manufacturing methods undreamed of by the craftsmen of yesteryear. Precision methods are costly, yet precision-made products in large volume bring comforts and conveniences into your daily life.

Something more than beer...

Did you know that Budweiser's process is the most expensive brewing process in the world? In addition to the costliest of ingredients, it calls for exclusive technical equipment and endless precision operations. You can sense all this in the distinctive taste that sets Budweiser apart from all other beers. The product of generations of skill, yes... a truly great brew... and yet Budweiser is something more. It is a symbol... of gracious living, of hospitality, of moderation. It is a companion of good friends, good foods and good taste.

Sports Round-up

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Nov. 26—(The Special New Service)—We'll leave it to the hot stovers to decide whether Lou Boudreau showed more courage in accepting that job managing Cleveland than Alva Bradley did in picking him. One thing's sure, they'd both better be able to take it if the Indians don't come through. Admitting that Lou has all kinds of ability, we just can't see a 24-year-old kid handling the same bunch that practically rode Ossie Vitt out of town on a rail. And don't forget, it was only a couple of weeks ago Bradley said he didn't think Boudreau could handle the manager's duties without impairing his play. The lawn tennis association didn't come out and say why Frankie Kovacs was given the go, but the announcement appeared at the bottom of a two-page "bulletin" covering in great detail the rules on expenses. The tipoff on that one was when Frank and his beautiful bride didn't get a free honeymoon trip to South America with the team that's down there now.

No Kick Coming
Can any football team beat these high school tricks? ... Armstrong High of Richmond, Va., played a game against Maggie Walker High last Saturday without punting once. ... And Casper (Wyo.) high played its last four games against strong opposition with a total of only two punts—both from outside its own 20-yard line.

One-Minute Sports Page
Missouri's football team has finished its regular season but the boys still are practicing. Guess why? Hank Armstrong, who already has begun to talk like a manager instead of a fighter, says he definitely has made up his mind never to try fighting again. ... Pro grid coaches get that twinkle in their eyes when they hear about Harvard's Vern Miller and Chub Peabody, even though they haven't any great hopes of signing them. ... Dick Harlow won't say it in so many words, but he hints that it might be a good thing if some of the herculean-corporated crimson nudged with the tough pros for a season or two. ... Leo (I'm never wrong) Durocher tells

Today's Guest Star
Kenneth Jones, Peoria (Ill.) Journal-Transcript. "Football and basketball did not use to amount to much and sports fans spent the winter replaying the world series. The Dodgers have something to be thankful for in this modern age."

Students, let us acclaim a holiday because of all those good marks. Being that tomorrow we eat bird anyway, give your professor a chance to relieve himself of catching the "bird", and take a vacation for the rest of the week.

Well, seriously, more bowlers hit the select circle last night than at any previous time this season as no less than 21 keglers, three of these ladies, split the wood to keep the alleys about town azzling.

In the City League Frank Fadale banged away for a new high individual total of 670 while Nummy Wooster topped the former single game mark with his 268. (Turn to Page Eleven)

State Puts Final Touches On Its Version of Traditional Holiday

Lewis G. Hines, secretary of labor and industry, was advised by the federal board, which controls the money with which the state bureau operates, that machinery must be set up for appeals from employees dismissed by the governor "for the good of the service." Attorneys of the state justice department will confer with lawyers of the social security board to discuss the legal points, officials said.

Funds Released

(From Page One) Hines said also the board was willing to release the funds now provided he goes into the proposal to set up machinery for appeals by civil service employees dismissed by Governor James. That question now is before the board to decide whether such machinery may be set up in an administrative way without voiding the intent of the law permitting the governor to fire "for the good of the service."

Article About Chilean Chief Irks President

(The article reported that a "political bulletin" was then issued, announcing temporary retirement from office "on account of bronchitis and gripe." (Aguirre Cerda died yesterday.) President Roosevelt brought up the subject at the opening of his press conference yesterday. He said he had just received word of the death of the Chilean president, and he was deeply sorry to receive the news.

Bowling Chatter

Fadale started his work with 244, came back with 222, and ended with 204. Wooster might have beaten Fadale's mark also but his third game fell of the pace. Numm collected 268 pins in his first game, 199 in the second, but only 173 in the third. Even then he had a nifty 640.

Other good scores at the Arcade included: Hagberg, 634; Pete Juliano, 625; Harry Wooster, 619; M. Check, 602. At the Conewango Nichols turned in 219 in a single game and VanTassel hit 225, best offerings on those slides for the evening. VanTassel had total of 582.

Stanchiffe turned in the best single game at the Moose with an even 210, also had 546 total which was tops. The Moose bowlers set an attendance record last night when there were no forfeits. And we might add that some of the new bowlers who before this season never had thrown a ball are showing marked improvement.

Burdette Miller, 36, of 321 Jackson street, is a patient in the Warren General Hospital, where he was admitted about seven o'clock last night following a mishap which occurred at the G. G. G. Metal Stamping Company plant, where he is employed. He is reported to have caught his right hand in a press. The tips of four fingers were amputated.

PEDESTRIAN STRUCK AND KILLED BY AUTO

Sharon, Nov. 26—(P)—James Drew, 41, of R. D. 4, Erie, was struck and killed last night by an automobile as he walked along the Greenville-Mercer road. State motor police said Drew and a companion were on their way to the Mercer county to obtain a night's lodging when the accident occurred.

28th is Lauded By Commander

(From Page One) For full commander, is required to retire by March 1. The prospect of his release from the army has started some speculation back home concerning his availability in 1942's Pennsylvania gubernatorial campaign. Martin has only praise for every man in the Iron Division because "they know how to do things." He disclosed that not one of the division officers classed as average for their grade had fallen down on the job under the hardships of the maneuvers.

INDIAN FIGHTER DIES

McKeesport, Nov. 26—(P)—Andrew Kay Roush, 81, a veteran of the Indian wars on America's western plains, died today at his home here. Born in Huntingdon county in February, 1860, Roush served in Company F, third regiment, U. S. Infantry, from 1881 to 1889.

Hearings Started by Boards

(From Page One) whose present pay rates range upward from $5.06 a day had demanded 30 per cent increases, and called a strike for December 7 after the president's board recommended a temporary increase of 7 1/2 per cent in their scales. The 900,000 railroad employees who belong to the 14 non-operating brotherhoods asked boosts of 30 to 34 cents an hour over their current range of 25 to 35 cents. The board recommended a 9-cent increase, which the unions rejected without setting an actual strike deadline.

The managements of the various railroads agreed with considerable reluctance to the increases recommended by the board. Another three-man board assembled in New York to arbitrate the captive coal mine dispute, under an advance agreement that the decision would be binding.

Sentiment for legislation to curb strikes in defense industries continued to run strong in both houses of congress.

Speaker Rayburn has announced that labor legislation will be given precedence as soon as the price control bill is disposed of, probably by next week.

The AFL machinists strike in and around St. Louis slowed up or halted production in 400 industrial plants, including two airplane factories. Millions of dollars worth of defense orders, including $19,000,000 placed by the navy, were curtailed or tied up by the walkout. It stemmed from a jurisdictional dispute with the AFL Hoisting Engineers and Carpenters Unions.

No matter whether or to what extent the United States delivers war materials to England, the outcome of the war cannot be changed, he declared. Neither, he said, is Russia in a place to make any change.

"If it should so develop that there would be war between the United States on one side and Europe on the other, the responsibility is clearly on Roosevelt," Von Ribbentrop said.

Von Ribbentrop repeated the German contention that Roosevelt was a "chief instigator" of the war, and questioned whether the American people, whom he described as sharing a long-time friendship with the German people, would "much longer tolerate his catastrophic policy."

NEW ROAD WILL TAKE PLACE OF FIRST MACADAM

With the section of roadway towards Janssboro opened preparations are being carried on for the building of the section from the borough line to Venture town. This piece of road to be replaced is the worst piece of road in the county and has been the first section of the highway to be built following the advent of the automobile and the demand for better highways.

The late C. W. Lee was awarded the contract and successfully built the road. Much difficulty was met with the excavation work due to slides and the contractors who had to work on the road for building this piece of road this section of the road. Slides were frequent and the first excavation was made. When the road was completed it was found that the road was to be built on a higher level than the old road and the slides have been stopped.

SERVICE STATION HOURS

At a reorganization meeting of the Warren County Petroleum Association held this week it was decided to maintain the seven o'clock closing hour for stations during the deep season, but the opening time in the morning will be optional with the proprietors. After the deer season the stations will go back on to the seven-to-seven schedule. Other matters of importance to proprietors and customers were discussed and will be announced later.

PIG PROGRAM

Announcement that pork will be one of the big items on the menu at the State Hospital at North Warren during the holiday season, attention is drawn to the pig raising program at the institution. Hog raising during the past score of years at the hospital has increased by leaps and bounds and the droves of pigs have been free from cholera and similar diseases. It will be recalled that a score of years ago about $50,000 was spent in building a pigsty at the hospital and much criticism was given the project at the time. A similar project recently put through at Polk Institute roused much criticism. However, with the averting of hog cholera epidemics by sanitary methods, the piggyeries and the subsequent lowering of the death rate of the droves of pigs the institution seems to be paying off.
